A former prince and his wife who are avid world travelers find shopping for clothes here in Sarasota has brought them some surprises.

"The beautiful sport clothes! I am amazed and so pleased to find just what I wish!" exclaimed Mrs. Kerstin Bernadotte, soon after she and the former Prince Carl-Johan Bernadotte of Sweden arrived here for a brief visit.

The prince is a grandson of King Gustaf of Sweden, his sister is Queen Ingrid of Denmark. He is a cousin of King George of England.

Carl-Johan, the fourth son of the Swedish crown prince and fourth in line for the throne, renounced his title and right of succession to marry Mrs. Kerstin Wijkmark, a divorcee. The couple was married in New York City Feb. 19, 1946.

The former prince now uses the name of Mr. C. J. Bernadotte. Mrs. Bernadotte was a Swedish magazine editor before their marriage. Bernadotte has become a successful business man.
